The main objective of the event was to convey the public and key social actors regarding the importance of the reintegration of former convicts in the field of work and in society, and also to encourage the dissemination of the project goals.

The meeting has started with a brief presentation of the project objectives, followed by an awareness documentary film concerning the Romanian inmates situation and their confrontation with the problem of social reintegration, presented for the audience. An artistic moment offered by a group of children and youngsters from “Craiova Penitentiary for Minors and Youngsters”, who performed a voice and drum concert, followed during the event. The children introduced themselves and shared a few thoughts about their life and prison experience.

The event included a session of open discussions and debates on the project issues. Within this part of the meeting, the participants had the opportunity to share and exchange relevant information and personal experience regarding the vulnerable groups subject of social exclusion.

The guests appreciated the initiative of UNDP Romania, considering it as a starting point for a future collaboration relationship and mutual support in developing and sustaining social inclusion programmes. During the discussions, other initiatives and ideas of promoting and communicate such causes have arisen.
